

Who Wrote the most Blues songs?

Who wrote the most in the Blues genre?

From the pie chart, we can see who has the most in songs in the Blues genre.

Eric Clapton is the artist with the most songs in the genre by 32 songs followed by The Black Crowes with 19 songs.

What is the most listened to genre of music?

From the bar chart here we can see the most purchased genres of music.

Rock music is the most listened to genre by a big margin with 835, Latin music is the second with 386 times purchased.

What is the most common media type?

We can see here the most used media type for tracks.

The MPEG audio file is the most common media type in the store.

Where do the sales of classical music come from?

According to this bar chart, we can see which countries buy classical music from our store.

France is responsible for the most purchases of classical music while the USA is a close second with 10 and 8 purchases respectively.